

Worth Careful Thought

Do you read the label to know whether your baking powder is made from cream of tartar or, on the other hand, from alum or phosphate?

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes, and adds to the food only wholesome qualities.

Other baking powders contain alum or phosphate, both of mineral origin, and used as substitutes for cream of tartar because of their cheapness.

Never sacrifice quality and healthfulness for low price.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
New York

CITY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey, Monday, October 30th, a son.

Miss Birdie Reed spent Tuesday with Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins across the river.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Alderman and baby have returned from a vacation in Georgia.

Mrs. J. H. Houghton and Miss Ruth Burt spent Wednesday in Jacksonville.

Miss Jonita O'Haver will return today from Thomaston, Ga., and will assist her mother in the Woman's Exchange.

Miss Mildred Terwilliger of Jersey City, New Jersey, has accepted a position with Miss Kate Lucus in the millinery department.

Mrs. Evans and Miss Mamie Evans, who have been staying at Summer Haven for several months, are making their home with Mrs. Cox, on North Third street.

Mrs. C. H. Williams arrived in Palatka the fore part of the week and is at the home of Mayor and Mrs. W. P. Merriam. Mrs. Williams spent the summer months in Ohio and the eastern states.

Captain J. E. Lucas returned Monday from a trip to New York City.

Kelley Reynolds has returned from a month's vacation in northern and western cities.

Mrs. Bugbee and Mrs. Coe of Hastings were week-end guests at the Barstow home.

Miss Susie Lee Walton and Miss Anne Deaderick were in Jacksonville Saturday to witness Maude Adams in "The Little Minister."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Bauer left yesterday for their home in Jupiter and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Reed.

Quite a number of our young ladies and gentlemen motored over to Welaka Tuesday evening to the dance given there in the evening.

The canvass for new members for St. James Methodist church closed last Saturday night with satisfactory results. Several new names were added to the register.

Miss Naomi Chamblee, Miss Helen Fox, Mrs. Grace Leverett, Mrs. Robertson, Charles Grover, Charles Palmer and Edwin Lawrence spent the week-end in St. Augustine.

Mrs. A. G. Phillips is home from a several weeks visit with her brother, Hon. W. A. Pratt, in Washington. Her son, Charles Phillips, met her in Jacksonville and accompanied her home.

J. W. Squires of Satsuma Hights spent the day in the city yesterday.

Mrs. McRay of Perry is the guest of her sister Mrs. J. M. Hickenlooper.

Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell of Welaka were guests of Mrs. Lillian Knight Wednesday.

Mrs. Lillian S. Knight has returned from a three weeks' visit at White Springs, Fla.

Miss Margaret Willard spent the week end with Mrs. Ridley R. Wilkinson in Jacksonville.

A merry crowd of young people enjoyed a dance given in the Club House Friday evening.

Miss Susie Lambert who is teaching in Bunnell, spent the week-end with friends in the city.

Palatka Chapter, Order Eastern Star, will hold a meeting next Tuesday evening, November 7th.

Col. Geo. W. Otterson, one of the large orange growers of Pomona, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

A very enjoyable meeting of the U. D. C. was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Patton Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tilghman and children and Miss Helen Tilghman spent yesterday at Orange Springs.

Ralph Wilson of Portland, Me., is the guest of his brother, F. H. Wilson, combining business and pleasure.

Hon. S. J. Hilburn and Judge J. C. Calhoun went to Florahome last evening to address a regular democratic rally at that place.

Delays of the contractor has prevented Bob James from moving into the new Hotel James this week as he had expected. But the removal will be made next week.

Mrs. E. W. Elliott was hostess for the Thursday Luncheon Bridge Club yesterday afternoon. After an enjoyable afternoon, the guests were served dainty refreshments.

The Misses Grace and Mildred Urie and brother James, left Wednesday for their future home in Frostproof. Mr. and Mrs. Urie left yesterday for their new home in that place.

Joseph Hammonree of McMeekin was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Hammonree has a number of splendid real estate bargain in the county which he is preparing to advertise.

Dr. H. R. Estes arrived yesterday and will remain in Palatka for a time a guest at the Kupperbusch Hotel. Dr. Estes has been spending the summer at the home of his daughter in Atlanta.

Tom Ray returned home on Wednesday from Savannah, called here on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Ray, who came home several days ago. They had been spending the summer in Savannah.

Mrs. L. A. Smith, Misses Edith Kupperbusch, Daisy Livingston and Messrs. Con Marvin and Hubbard Winnegar motored to Welaka Tuesday evening and enjoyed the oyster fry and dance which was given there.

Mrs. I. E. Brown was called to her former home in Statesville, North Carolina, Tuesday, by the death of her father, Rev. Dr. Love. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Brown regret the sad news, and extend their sympathy.

The preparation of the Rooster Women's Club Edition of The Palatka News is moving along rapidly and the members are meeting with generous responses from their solicitations. The contents promise to be very interesting and entertaining.

R. C. Howell returned on Wednesday from a stay of several weeks at Tate Springs, Tenn., where he has been indulging in the waters to an in-temperate degree. But he says these waters have lubricated his joints and that where there was rheumatism and an inclination to springhalt, all is now the springiness of youth.

Col. Henry Strunz returned on Tuesday from an extended visit in New York and New England, and is again at his desk in the Law Exchange building. Col. Strunz has a big crop of citrus fruit on his San Mateo groves and it is expected that he will give largely of his time the next few months to a movement of this crop.

Maj. Gen. John A. Roseborough of Windsor, Alachua county, a former commander-in-chief of the Florida Confederate Veterans, with Mrs. Roseborough, is spending a few days in the city this week the guest of his son, Mr. John Roseborough. Gen. Roseborough has long been one of the foremost citizens of Alachua county and for several terms served in the House of Representatives of Florida's legislature.

Woman's Club.

The literary program for this afternoon's study is the second of the club year and opens with the study of Genesis, with Mrs. John N. Walton, leader. The first topic under this head is (1) The Hymn of Creation (Chap. 1: verses 1, 2, 3.) Chap. 2: "Entrance of Allegory in Second Account of Creation," paper by Mrs. Wymes A. Walton. (2) The Epic Stories of the Hebrew People, Abraham to Joseph," paper by Mrs. Albert Trombley. (3) The story of Joseph; a Masterpiece" paper by Mrs. John N. Walton. and (4) "Comparison of these Stories with Stories from Classic and Gothic Literatures; Why have we Singled Out the Hebrew Traditions to which to attach our Own?" paper prepared by Miss Susie Lee Walton. The meeting will begin promptly at 3 o'clock.

Another Viewpoint.

Clara—I overheard Mr. Blimberly say to a friend the other evening that I was a pretty young lady. Maude—Well, you are pretty young; but, of course, you are growing older each day.—Chicago News.

STYLISH SUITS FOR WINTER WEAR

Positively the finest line of suits ever offered in Palatka for the price. They are made up in three-piece pinch back and English models, skeleton lining, patch pockets, with the new narrow soft roll. Right up to the minute styles, full of snap and just what you may be needing.

Our large assortment will enable you to select the color that is most becoming to you.

Come in and see them and you'll be surprised at the wonderful values that we are offering

$15.00 to $25.00

M. S. BROWN Clothier and Furnisher to Particular Men and Boys.

FOR EVERY OCCASION

Whether it's an evening at home with your favorite magazine or author or the entertainment of friends—

Smith's

Candy or Chocolates are becoming more and more popular with everyone.

THERE'S A REASON

At The Baptist Church.

Rev. R. L. Bonsteel will preach at the First Baptist Church next Sunday, both at the morning service at 11 o'clock, and at the evening service, 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and worship at this church.

Party at Green Cove Springs.

The ladies composing the Monday Night Bridge Club were entertained in Green Cove Springs by a former Palatka resident, Mrs. Shaw Coogler. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and ferns. The guests upon arriving at 6:30 o'clock were served to a most appetizing menu of chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee, fruit jello and cake. At eight o'clock the ladies of Palatka were joined by eight of the Green Cove society ladies and together, the four tables playing enjoyed a most delightful evening till 11:30 o'clock when the train carried the Palatka ladies home. After the games Mrs. Coogler served hot chocolate. The guests from Palatka included Mrs. H. A. Davis, Mrs. W. P. Merriam, Mrs. H. F. Leeks, Mrs. Elizabeth Howe, Mrs. J. T. Barnett, Mrs. S. G. Coburn, Mrs. A. F. Bauer and Miss Edith Kupperbusch.

Hallowe'en Festivities.

Quite a number of parties were given Tuesday evening to celebrate Hallowe'en, among them being one given by little Miss Emily Nerwich who entertained twelve guests. After a few interesting stunts at the house, he party proceeded to the Grand where they enjoyed the pictures and afterwards, cream was served at Smith's. Another enjoyable affair was given by Miss Bernice Buck at the home of Miss Lenore Hogan. The rooms were decorated with appropriate Hallowe'en emblems and after some highly interesting games among which was the unmasking of the guests. The service included pumpkin pie, salad, cake and punch. In the afternoon Miss Dorothy Coogler gave a party for several of her young friends. All guests were requested to come in fancy costume and the house was also prettily decorated with the yellow and black and candles. After a merry afternoon spent in games and contests, the little friends were served ice cream and cake. Twenty four guests were delightfully entertained.

Presbyterian Church.

Services next Sunday will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Alford, D. D. at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for the morning, "Christ The Bread Of Life;" evening topic, "The Possible and Impossible In Our Salvation." Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Superintendent, F. T. Merrill. Mid-week prayer service, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial welcome to the public.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Zurt on Dodge street, next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

By request, Mrs. Robert S. O'Haver, the organist of the Presbyterian church, has consented to give an organ recital before the evening service on Sunday November 12th. The recital will begin at 7:15 and continue

Your friends can buy anything you can give them—

except your photograph

NECK'S PHOTO STUDIO

Putnam National Bank

Phone 5

Palatka Automobile & Supply Company

announces that it has increased the scope of its business by the addition of facilities for

FORGINGS PATTERN MAKING
— AND —
GENERAL MACHINE REPAIR WORK

Of course we continue our departments of Plumbing, Roofing, Pipe Fitting, Bath Room Fixtures and Supplies.

Phone 152.

Palatka, Florida

FOR SALE—FOR RENT

2 1/2 ACRES, 7 acres cleared and fenced, 4 room dwelling, located on Pentel hard road, miles of Palatka. Bulk of tract extra good land. Price $200.00.
TWO STORY DWELLING, 7 rooms and bath, electric lights, lot 50 x 150, N. 7th St. or terms to suit. Bargain.
SEVEN ROOM DWELLING, lot 50 x 200 on Kirby St. $1000.00. Cash or terms to suit.
FIVE ROOM DWELLING, lot 50 x 100 on Kirby St. $1000.00. Cash or terms to suit.
10 ACRES, half of it fenced and cleared, on hard road 2 miles from Palatka. 10 per cent.
20 ACRES, 10 of it fenced and cleared, 8 room two story dwelling, other improvements fronting on hard road 2 miles from Palatka, worth the money.
20 ACRES unimproved fronts on hard road 2 miles from town. $50.00 per acre.
700 ACRES TIMBER LAND in Levy County, Florida. $4.00 per acre in fee.
2 1/2 acres, all fenced and under cultivation. One 5-room dwelling, good water, fruit on place. 1 1/2 mile from Court House. Just the thing for small chicken. Price $1250.00. Terms.
10 acres, all fenced and under cultivation. One small dwelling, barn and other improvements. 3 miles from town. Cheap for cash.
30 acres At farming land, partly improved, small dwelling. Located on public road 4 miles from Palatka, good neighborhood. Price $900.00.
30 acres, 15 of it under fence and cultivation. Small dwelling, good water, 20 per cent. trees and other fruits. 1 1/2 miles from Court House.
One six-room house, $900 per month.

T. J. KNIGHT

N. 4th St., PALATKA

REAL ESTATE

FIRE INSURANCE

until 7:15 when the regular church service will begin. This recital will be of a high order and in keeping with the Sabbath. The public is invited.

The Men's Club of the church will be entertained Friday evening November 10th at the home of John Cross-by in San Mateo. The men and their friends will leave the church auto, at 7:30 o'clock and a delightful evening is anticipated.

Australia yearly produces 200 tons of cane sugar.

The Fashion

JUST ARRIVED

A selection of

Serge Dresses

The very latest, in twelve different styles.

A complete assortment of

Coats, Coat Suits

We can save you money in any garment you buy from us. Call and examine our goods and be convinced as to our prices.

The Fashion

FRUCHTMAN BROS., Proprietors